TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The subscription to Artemysia asbl Weekly Theatre classes is done by Trimester or for a full year, except registration for a specific period outside the usual framework.
2. A reduction in the case of registration during the current year is possible following a request sent with the registration form.
3. Subscription to a course or to a workshop is confirmed only after our feedback and the payment for the course (via bank transfer). In the case of annual registration, it is possible to make the payment in two installments (the 1st one at the registration, the 2nd before January 31, 2024).
4. The student/participant must respect the place, the teachers and the physical and psychological integrity of the other students. Punctuality is mandatory.
5. Parents of minor students authorize the taking of photos and videos during courses or association events as well as the use of these photos and videos for any publication solely within the framework of the association's communication.
6. Theater workshops/courses are given by performing arts professionals, members of the non-profit association Artemysia Theater asbl, with registered office in Luxembourg City (31, rue Wurth Paquet, 2737). The association has the following priority goals:
  - ✓ To create a center for research and experimentation in the field of Theater and performing arts, giving itself the mission of networking, cultural training and exchange with Luxembourgish, European and extra-European cultural operators.
  - ✓ To promote activities in the field of visual and performative arts such as exhibitions, conferences, meetings, training workshops, theatrical activities, performances, literary readings, think tanks on culture-artistic themes, training workshops, cultural happenings, interdisciplinary creative workshops and traveling events.
